Hannum's Harley-Davidson® to purchase Lancaster Harley-Davidson®

Lancaster Harley-Davidson will be tentatively re-opening its doors on Tuesday, May 10th, as the next chapter of the dealerships over 70-year legacy continues with new ownership by the Hannum's Harley-Davidson Group.

"Hannum's Harley-Davidson has been a family-owned and operated business since we opened in 1954. Family is truly at the heart of Hannum's Harley-Davidson and we will continue that tradition at Lancaster Harley-Davidson," said Thomas Hannum, owner/operator of Hannum's Harley-Davidson.

"I have known the Hannum family for over 50 years, and I believe they are true motorcycle enthusiasts. It has been an honor to represent Harley-Davidson and we intend to continue riding and supporting the community" said Jack and Patti Texter, owner/operators of Lancaster Harley-Davidson.

Lancaster Harley-Davidson is located at 308 Beaver Valley Pike, Willow Street, Pennsylvania

A grand re-opening event will be scheduled for this summer to celebrate. Stay tuned for more information!
